Plagiarism Declaration

I, Robert, know and accept that plagiarism (i.e., to use another's work and to pretend that it is one's own) is wrong. Consequently, I declare that:

- The following essay is my own work.
- I have correctly acknowledged all direct quotes and paraphrased ideas. In addition, I have provided a complete, alphabetized reference list, as required by the MLA method of referencing (described in the Student Handbook).
- I have not allowed and will not allow anyone to copy my work with the intention of passing it off as his or her own work.
- I understand that the University of the Witwatersrand may take disciplinary action against me if there is a belief that this is not my own unaided work or that I failed to acknowledge the source of the ideas or words in my writing.
